ARMA International supports your career with continued & meaningful NETWORKING, forward-thinking EDUCATION, and cutting-edge BUSINESS TOOLS – everything members need to successfully navigate the full information life cycle.

ARMA trains her team.

"Because I didn't come from a record management background, I relied on ARMA to educate me on this profession. And then I've been able to bring that professional knowledge to my program. ARMA offers the tools you need for professional training and furthering your career, and it's up to you to make the investment and to benefit from those tools."

Susan Voner

ARMA gives her a professional home.

“I describe ARMA in three words – welcoming, supportive, and encouraging. It’s important people feel there’s a place they belong professionally. At ARMA, you feel accepted. Everyone is so giving of their time and resources. I know I'm not alone, and I make sure others know they’re not alone. We're in this profession together.”

Tyrene Bada

ARMA accelerates his career.

“I credit ARMA with giving people the opportunity to do things they wouldn't do otherwise. The encouraging ARMA culture brought all these writing and speaking opportunities to me. Any time a problem that I'm not familiar with lands on my desk, I know I'll be able to email or call someone I know through ARMA and quickly gain the necessary insight that, without ARMA, could take days or weeks or more.”
